Tips for those dropping off and picking up passengers – park directly at the airports without having to spend a lot of money

Passengers can park their cars at the Central German airports for prices starting at EUR 15 per week. This is possible at the P4A car park at Dresden Airport.

Passengers can park their vehicles at the P20 car park at Leipzig/Halle Airport for EUR 20 for seven days if they make the booking online. You can find more information here: www.mdf-ag.com

Visitors, who are dropping off passengers for departures, can use the P11 car park right next to the check-in area or the multi-storey car park at Leipzig/Halle Airport.

Those dropping off or picking up passengers have been able to stop free of charge for 10 minutes in the restricted area in front of Terminal B (lane 3) since the beginning of this year. Fees must be paid for parking in the lanes if the 10-minute period is exceeded.

Guests who need more time can park their vehicles directly opposite the terminal at the P1 car park. The first ten minutes are also free of charge there. If the parking time is 30 or 60 minutes, the parking fees at the P1 car park amount to EUR 2 or EUR 3. You can find more information here: <http://www.bit.ly/3FMZpwe>

About Mitteldeutsche Flughafen AG

Mitteldeutsche Flughafen AG has three subsidiaries: Leipzig/Halle Airport, Dresden Airport and PortGround. Leipzig/Halle registered about 1.56 million passengers and approx. 1.5 million tonnes of air freight in 2022. This makes Leipzig/Halle Germany's second-largest cargo airport. The airport is connected to the A9 and A14 motorways and has a railway station that forms an integral part of the central terminal. This ensures that passengers from Central Germany and beyond can reach the airport directly.

About 841,500 passengers passed through Dresden Airport in 2022. A link to the A4 motorway and a local railway station in the terminal ensure that passengers from the catchment areas in Saxony, southern Brandenburg, the north of the Czech Republic and western Poland can easily reach the airport and leave it again.

PortGround offers ground, freight and other extensive handling services at Leipzig/Halle and Dresden Airports round the clock.

The two airports belonging to Mitteldeutsche Flughafen AG registered about 101,000 aircraft movements and more than 2.4 million passengers in 2022.
